Mission Statement:

To safeguard people and property in all our rural communities through awareness, communications and education.

History:

The Alberta Provincial Rural Crime Watch was formed to assist the RCMP in recognizing potential criminal activity and/or crimes in progress so RCMP can apprehend perpetrators. The Rural Crime Watch (RCW) Program was designed to reduce the incidents of crime in rural areas and to create a more thorough understanding and awareness of the laws. It is completely voluntary, involving rural residents working in cooperation with their local RCMP detachments.

The RCW Program as we know it began in 1979 supported by four local associations: The Alberta Cattle Commission, the Western Stock Growers' Association, the Farmers Advocate, and the RCMP. Since then, local associations have developed throughout the province. These were not linked by a provincial body prior to 1994. In 1995, the Provincial Rural Crime Watch Association received official recognition as a society and the organization has become a substantive force in the province. Visit: www.ruralcrimewatch.ab.ca

The scope of the Rural Crime Watch Association has expanded. Associations are now concentrating their efforts on farmstead security, property identification and general rural crime awareness. The Range Patrol Program continues, plus the "Report A Poacher" program has been included. There are now 50+ Rural Crime Watch groups in Alberta.

High Country Rural Crime Watch Association:

The High Country Rural Crime Watch Association (HCRCWA) is part of the Provincial Zone 1, which encompasses Southern Alberta. The area we cover is the Turner Valley RCMP Detachment response area, which includes the western portion of Foothills County (immediately southwest of Calgary), with major western parts of county Divisions 2, 3 and 4. Originally started in 1981, the HCRCWA had lapsed its operations in our area, for a time. Due to an increase in criminal activity and interest by the community, the group was re-established as of March 2010, and continues to work on its communication networks and future goals. HCRCWA sends urgent and informational messages via our email fan-out system and has set up a phone fan-out system for those who wish to receive messages by phone. The group hosts or partners in holding public meetings to bring information to our communities and encourage membership. Check out our website and Facebook page, which provides other important crime prevention tips and links: www.hcrcwa.ca www.facebook.com/HighCountryRuralCrimeWatch/
